● A STORY OF RETURN

ABOUT DANIEL

After more than a decade of silence, the Argentine singer-songwriter returns with an EP inspired by the greatness of a Father who runs to meet the son.

Daniel Olalla, from Mendoza, grew up among strings, keyboards and songs, surrounded by choir directors, worship leaders and ministers. In 2010, shortly after marrying Nabila, he released his first album «Mira al Cielo», which led to tours in Brazil and Portuguese versions.

The arrival of his children Kadima and Lorenzo led him into a deep time of intimacy with God. He chose to stop his debut when everything indicated a rising musical career, and to wait for God's direction. In that apparent silence he found what the stages could not give him: depth, intimacy and purpose.

There he understood that composing is not merely an artistic act, but an intimate conversation with God — a prayer turned into song.

«I understood that my most urgent calling was not on a stage or under a spotlight, but in my relationship with God and in my family».

FUI HALLADO

Corrí cansado, sin dignidad
Llevaba culpa, miedo y soledad
Pensé en tu casa, lo que dejé
Y entre la ruina decidí volver

En mi pobreza recordé tu amor
Me levanté con lo poco que quedaba
Corrí, corrí, sin fuerza ni valor...
Y tú corriste a encontrarme con Tu Gracia

Fui hallado, fui hallado
Me pusiste un anillo en la mano
Fui hallado, fui hallado
Y cambiaste mi ropa de esclavo
Fui hallado, fui hallado
Aleluya, aleluya
Tu amor me encontró sin condenar
Aleluya, aleluya
Fui hallado en tu mesa eternal

En mi pobreza recordé tu amor
Me levanté con lo poco que quedaba
Corrí, corrí, sin fuerza ni valor
Y tú corriste a encontrarme con Tu Gracia

Fui hallado, fui hallado
Me pusiste un anillo en la mano
Fui hallado, fui hallado
Y cambiaste mi ropa de esclavo
Aleluya, aleluya
Fui hallado en tu mesa eternal

Fui hallado, fui hallado
Me pusiste un anillo en la mano
